mci voted as number one business events agency in asia pacific

mci asia pacific tops cei asia's readers' choice awards for the first time

Geneva, xx December 2015. MCI Asia Pacific has been awarded the Best Business Events Agency title by Asia's leading corporate events publication, CEI Asia, at the 2016 CEI Readers' Choice Awards.

CEI's annual industry survey spotlights the elite in business events from across the region, chosen solely by its readers.

MCI's latest accolade illustrates its commitment to drive business results and deliver innovative solutions and services to clients in the Asia Pacific region and worldwide.

"We are honoured to be awarded the number one spot as the Best Business Events Agency in the CEI Readers' Choice Awards by CEI Asia," said Oscar Cerezales, Chief Operating Officer of MCI Asia Pacific. "We are proud that our tremendous capabilities in Asia Pacific have been recognised with this prestigious win.

"After landing second place in the awards last year, our team in the Asia Pacific region has worked tirelessly to build on our success. It has also reinforced the fact that our clients and customers continuously need and expect innovative approaches and solutions."

The MCI Asia Pacific team, with nearly 450 employees, is based in 13 offices in Australia, China, Indonesia, Japan, Malaysia, Singapore and South Korea.

It delivers a range of services including professional congress organization, association management and consulting, performance improvement, meetings and events, and creative production and communication.
